ANTIOCH, ILLINOIS, THURSDAY, JULY 21, 1966

VOL. LXXXI NUMBER 4

Betty Lu Williams, librarian, works in this crowded corner that serves as an office at the Antioch Township Public Library.

New Library Plans Move Slowly

The Antioch Township Library Board has hired an architect to draw up plans for a proposed new library.

After interviewing 14 or 15 architects, the board settled on Robert J. Freund of Crystal Lake. Freund is associated with Vern L. Solberg, and is at present, the architect for the new Crystal Lake library.

Mr. Freund, with the help of Betty Lu Williams, is at present making a study of the projected needs of the community. Betty Lu made such a study in 1962, when the need for a new building was being discussed.

Present tentative plans call for a seating capacity for 70 persons. The present library will seat 39, when six available folding chairs are pressed into use.

The board hopes to procure a Federal grant to help pay for the building. If the construction is to start next year, plans for the library must be submitted to the government by October.

The need for more room is obvious to even the casual observer. The "office" of the library is a corner of the children's room, partially blocked off by file cabinets. Some books are kept in the basement. Shelves have been built in every available spot. And the weight of shelves of books, in one place, has pulled ed the wall away from the bottom trim.

The library would probably be used a great deal more, Betty Lu surmises, if there were room to sit, and room to have more books on hand. She would like to see the library widen its services, a move that can't be made until a larger building is available. A supply of records and films to loan out is now a service in many public libraries. Some libraries, Betty Lu says, even loan out pictures.

The first business of a library, though, is books, and the Antioch Library is sadly short of space for a good variety of books on a variety of subjects.

Another feature Librarian Betty Lu Williams longs to see incorporated into the plans for the new library is a "Historical Room"—a room for all historical data pertaining to Antioch Township. It would provide a place where all pictures, documents, books, etc., on the early history of the area could be displayed.

At least two families have expressed an interest in donating fairly sizeable sums to the new library, and Betty Lu hopes that a gift committee will soon be appointed by the board to handle such matters. The Memorials of new books is becoming in-

Legal Secretaries Form Association

Two Antioch women were among officers elected to the newly-organized Lake County League Secretary's Association last week.

Officers of the association were elected July 14 at a meeting at Cook's Golden Pheasant Inn in Waukegan. Margaret Demarco, secretary in the office of Ted Larson of Antioch, was elected treasurer of the legal secretaries. Sally Nihil, secretary in Edward Jacobs' office, was chosen Governor.

Other officers are: president, Lorrie King, Waukegan, vice president, Lucy Borland, Zion; corresponding secretary, Dorothy Young, Waukegan; receiving secretary, Mary Ann Hartwick, Waukegan, and NAL representative, Margaret Poulos, Waukegan.

The next meeting of the secretaries will be held August 11, with installation of officers scheduled.

The Antioch Public Library served over 4,000 people in 1965. About 48,000 books were circulated, many of them from the State Lending Library.

At the present time, the Library Board has a request pending before the village board to trade parcels of property so as to square off the Library property, now an odd-shaped piece. The Library would give the village in return, the land it is now using for Little League.

2 Sons Home On Leave

The two sons of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kaminski, South Main St., Antioch, are home on leave from the armed services.

Lance Corporal Gerald Kaminski, 20 years old, has just completed a thirteen-week tour of service in Viet Nam. He has a Purple Heart received after he was wounded in a night attack. He won't have to go back to Viet Nam—"Thank Heaven!" say his mother and father, fervently—but still has 16 months the the Marine Corps to go.

His older brother, Dennis, saved his furlough until he knew his brother was coming home, then took it so they could both be home. He's in the Army, stationed at Fort Dix, New Jersey.

Sp/4 Dennis Kaminski is 23 years old. He's due to be released from the service Sept. 17. His big problem last week was how to get back to base on time. The airlines strike "goofed up" his leave plans.

Jerry arrived home on June 17, a week before his birthday. It was an occasion for rejoicing for the Kaminskis. He had been wounded in the left thigh, spent some time in a hospital in Okinawa, then returned to Viet Nam.

He was shot during a night attack by Viet Cong. He received the wound as he ran from the tent where he had been sleeping when the alarm was sounded.

His parents didn't hear from him for six weeks at that time, nor were they notified he had been wounded. That was the time they worried most.

Jerry doesn't talk about the war or Viet Nam. He just wants to enjoy being home.

Both the Kaminski boys attended school in Antioch. Their parents have lived here for 16 years. Mr. Kaminski works at Badger Dairy near Trevor. Mrs. Kaminski works at Active Specialty.

Storm Brings Mystery

A mystery has developed from last week's storm that no one, so far, has been able to solve.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Haase, Rt. 2, Box 467, Antioch, apparently received one-half of a paint job during the high wind.

The white house, the morning after the storm, appeared to have been painted a deep orange-yellow on the north and west sides.

A neighbor, Mrs. Hazel Reimer, reported the strange occurrence to the newspaper. She is intrigued by the mystery.

The Haase home is about 1½ miles south of Antioch on Route 83. The home has white wood siding, as does the garage.

Last Monday morning, after the storm, they discovered that both the house and garage had turned color on the two sides hit by the strong wind.

The windows of the home are not affected by the strange coloring. It looks as though an expert painter had painted the wood around them. Mrs. Haase reports. And where the sheltered side of the house meets the part hit by the wind, the same clear line is shown.

The Haases have found that the strange yellow coloring will wash off, but not with ease. "We have to use a very strong cleaning solution and scrub hard," Mrs. Haase said.

A tree was blown down about one-half block from the Haase home during the storm.

Gibbs & Jonsen Add An Inc.

The office of the Secretary of State has issued a corporation charter to Gibbs & Jonsen, Inc., Lake St., Antioch.

Sewers And Septic Tanks Plague Board

The village board split 3-3 on the question of whether or not to allow the First Church of Christ Scientist, to install a septic tank at their new building rather than hook up to the city sewer. Mayor Ray Toft cast a vote in favor of the proposition, breaking the tie.

Reed Kaiser represented the Christian Science church, requesting the concession. He said installing the sewer line would be an extreme hardship for the church at this time.

Estimates of the cost of installing the sewer were about $5,000 for hooking into one sewer line, and about $2,000 for an alternate route. The cheaper method was undesirable, he said, because it involved a lift station—only 30 inches deep which would freeze in the winter.

Kaiser said a previous village board had assured him that the church board would be allowed to install a septic tank. Hence, the added cost had not been planned on. The septic tank installation, Kaiser said, would cost only $350.

Five members of the board expressed reluctance to approve a septic tank. Approval of this system, they said, would certainly lead to a similar request from St. Stephen's Lutheran Church, whose sewer installation will be at least equally expensive.

The board recently issued an ultimatum that Oakwood Knolls residents must hook into sewer mains, and are involved with various problems in the village where septic tanks had been installed and proved unsatisfactory.

Trustee David Nissen said he felt the church should be allowed to install the septic tank, providing the church board would present the village board with a letter agreeing to install the sewer within 5 years. Nissen put the proposal in the form of a motion. Walsh, Meierdick and Wilton voted Nay; Barnstable, Williams and Nissen voted Yea, and the Mayor's deciding vote gave approval.

Kaiser said he would consult with the church board for approval of the five-year limit.

NEW POLICE SQUAD CAR

Bids were submitted for a new police car. Pittman Motors bid $1,950.34 with trade-in for a 1966 Catalina 4-door sedan; Earl Stringer Motors bid $1,744 for a 1966 Dodge Polara, and John Teresi bid $2,150 on an Olds 88. The police committee recommended acceptance of the bid of John Teresi, because it included six-tyre tires and other desirable features.

Mayor Toft announced that it had been necessary to replace the squad car wrecked in a crash recently, and that the bid of Pittman Motors had been accepted, at a price of $2,178.16 with trade-in of the wrecked car. A payment of $700 from the insurance company would reduce this price to $1,478.16, he said.

The board approved an ordinance to prohibit parking on Orchard St. between Hillside and David.

The Illinois Mission Children's Home asked approval of tag days in Antioch August 5 and 6. In line with their rule of limiting such requests to one day, the board approved August 6 for tag day.

CELEBRATE MAYOR'S BIRTHDAY

Board activities were momentarily halted to serve a birthday cake—in honor of Mayor Toft's birthday.

BRIGHTER LIGHTS

Trustee Robert Wilton said that lights at the corner of Lake and Main are dim, and asked if brighter ones could be installed. Superintendent of Public Works Edgar Simonsen said a new type of light of greater brilliance could be installed, and the board instructed him to try them in two lights.

INSURANCE

The board approved a recommendation of the insurance committee to consolidate insurance on the Scout House. The contract was awarded to the John Romer Agency on their bid of $197.60.

It was reported that Willowdale Dairy had removed all discarded refrigerators and junk from their premises adjoining the village park area. A problem created by their burning cartons had been rectified by building a wire burner. Mayor Toft reported, and they were in the process of securing an incinerator.

The board approved a request from Civil Defense Director Ed Frazier of mileage expense on his car when on civil defense business, and expense set at 8¢ a mile.

NEW SIDEWALKS

Trustee Vern Barnstable reported that work on sidewalks on Victoria St. should be completed this week. The village portion of the expense was $1,332, he said.

Barnstable said new sidewalks would next be installed near the high school, then the Scout House and library.

Chairman of the police committee Arthur Meierdick asked approval to purchase vinyl decals for one police car, of a star with "Antioch" in the center. The decals, he said, cost $14 each if purchased separately, $8 each if purchased in lots of six. The board approved purchase of six decals.

Trustee Meierdick reported that officer Fred Elam had been returned to regular duty.

Meierdick asked Police Chief Heick to demonstrate tear gas pens. The tear gas ejectors are the size of a large fountain pen and will throw a spray 8 feet. Each pen contains 8 squirts.

The pens are excellent in handling disorderly persons without the need to use force, Heick said. One squirt, and for 30 minutes a person cannot see. It does no permanent damage and leaves no burn or scarr.

Larger tear gas ejectors, about the size of a flashlight, would be helpful in controlling a mob, Heick said. The board approved purchase of the tear gas equipment at the discretion of the police committee.

Robert Wilton reported that Mid Lakes Mowing has completed mowing of 200 lots in Oakwood Knolls and property owners will be billed.

Edgar Simonsen reported that 190 tons of road gravel were used on the parking area behind the Main St. stores.

Veteran Fire-Fighter Drops Active Duty

Elmer Hunter left the active ranks of the Antioch Fire Department Tuesday night, July 12. He requested that he be put on the inactive list at the regular meeting of the fire department.

His fellow-firemen gave Elmer a standing ovation as he left their ranks after 43 years of service.

Elmer joined the Antioch Fire Department in 1923, ten-years after it was organized. "Being a fireman was rugged in those days," he says. "We had a 4-wheeled cart that we carried the hose in. The first fire I went to was a chicken coop down near where the library is, and we had to pull the hose wagon down there. By the time you ran that far pulling the cart, you were no good. That was hard work."

For a fire outside of town, someone rounded up a truck and they loaded the hose cart on the truck. Only trouble was, there was no pressure out in the country, so they had to use a pump.

The Fire Department got its first truck in 1923, shortly after Elmer joined the force, and that was a proud moment, he says. It was the only fire truck in the area. The Antioch Fire Department took care of Salem, Trevor, Russell, they—even traveled to Woodworth, Wis., to fight a fire.

They only had thirty feet of hose with the truck, though, and that wasn't always enough. "Our dream was to get more hose," Elmer says, "and finally somebody—I think it was Mrs. Micheli or Mrs. Herman—gave us thirty feet more. We went out to Smith's at Channel Lake to try it out and it sucked water sixty feet up that steep bank."

"There was no cab or heater on those early trucks. Just a windshield, and it was tough in winter. I guess the fire I remember where we suffered the most was one in Wilmet. Elmer said, 'It was 20° below and the roads were icy. We got there, half-frozen, and there was frozen hose lying all over. The hoses had frozen up on the other fire departments. It was 5 o'clock in the morning. We got our hose out and fought the fire. When we got through, our hose was frozen stiff—we couldn't bend it. We had to round up five trucks to haul it home and thaw it out. I remember 'Swede' Petersen's coat got wet and froze and he couldn't bend over."

Elmer thinks the worst fire he ever went on was the one that burned King's Drug Store when it was located on Main St. some years ago. But every fire is bad, he says. You never know what you're getting into. He doesn't remember an Antioch fireman ever being badly hurt, but "we were just lucky," he says, "mighty lucky."

The last fire call he went on was the recent A&P fire in the shopping plaza.

Elmer was an engineer throughout his years with the department—that's the official label of the man who drives the truck.

Elmer was born in Antioch, the son of the William Hunters. He attended school here, as did his children. His wife, Martha, is village treasurer. He went in the garage business in Antioch in 1934 and moved to his present location on Route 173 east of Antioch in 1949.

Why does a fireman give up his free time and sleep for the miserable, dangerous job of fighting fires? Because it's one way of doing some public good, Elmer says. And Antioch, he declares emphatically, has one of the best fire departments in Lake County. He regrets leaving, but "let the young men take over. I've had my day."

ANTIOCH, ILLINOIS, THURSDAY, JULY 21, 1966

VOL. LXXXI, NUMBER 4

Betty Lu Williams, librarian, works in this crowded corner that serves as an office at the Antioch Township Public Library.

New Library Plans Move Slowly

The Antioch Township Library Board has hired an architect to draw up plans for a proposed new library.

After interviewing 14 or 15 architects, the board settled on Robert J. Freund of Crystal Lake. Freund is associated with Vern L. Solberg, and is at present the architect for the new Crystal Lake library.

Mr. Freund, with the help of Betty Lu Williams, is at present making a study of the projected needs of the community. Betty Lu made such a study in 1962, when the need for a new building was being discussed.

Present tentative plans call for a seating capacity for 70 persons. The present library will seat 30, when six available folding chairs are pressed into use.

The board hopes to procure a Federal grant to help pay for the building. If the construction is to start next year, plans for the library must be submitted to the government by October.

The need for more room is obvious to even the casual observer. The "office" of the library is a corner of the children's room, partially blocked off by file cabinets. Some books are kept in the basement. Shelves have been built in every available spot. And the weight of shelves of books, in one place, has pulled the wall away from the bottom trim.

The library would, probably, be used a great deal more, Betty Lu surmises, if there were room to sit, and room to have more books on hand. She would like to see the library widen its services, a move that can't be made until a larger building is available. A supply of records and films to loan out is now a service in many public libraries. Some libraries, Betty Lu says, even loan out pictures.

The first business of a library, though, is books, and the Antioch Library is sadly short of space for a good variety of books on a variety of subjects.

Another feature Librarian Betty Lu Williams longs to see incorporated into the plans for the new library is a Historical Room—a room for all historical data pertaining to Antioch Township. It would provide a place where all pictures, documents, books, etc. on the early history of the area could be displayed.

At least two families have expressed an interest in donating fairly sizeable sums to the new library, and Betty Lu hopes that a gift committee will soon be appointed by the board to handle such matters. The Memorials of new books is becoming in-

Legal Secretaries Form Association

Two Antioch women were among officers elected to the newly-organized Lake County League Secretary's Association last week.

Officers of the association were elected July 14 at a meeting at Cook's Golden Pheasant Inn in Waukegan.

Margaret Demareo, secretary in the office of Ted Larson of Antioch, was elected treasurer of the legal secretaries. Sally Nihill, secretary in Edward Jacobs' office, was chosen Governor.

Other officers are: president, Lorrie King, Waukegan; vice president, Lucy Borland, Zion; corresponding secretary, Dorothy Young, Waukegan; receiving secretary, Mary Ann Hartwick, Waukegan; and NAL representative, Margaret Poulos, Waukegan.

The next meeting of the secretaries will be held August 11, with installation of officers scheduled.

Increasingly popular. The Antioch Public Library served over 4,000 people in 1965. About 48,000 books were circulated, many of them from the State Lending Library.

At the present time, the Library Board has a request pending before the village board to trade parcels of property so as to square off the Library property, now an odd-shaped piece. The Library would give the village in return, the land it is now using for Little League.

2 Sons Home On Leave

The two sons of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kaminski, South Main St., Antioch, are home on leave from the armed services.

Lance Corporal Gerald Kaminski, 20 years old, has just completed a thirteen-week tour of service in Viet Nam. He has a Purple Heart received after he was wounded in a night attack. He won't have to go back to Viet Nam—"Thank Heaven!" say his mother and father, fervently—but still has 16 months in the Marine Corps to go.

His older brother, Dennis, saved his furlough until he knew his brother was coming home, then took it so they could both be home. He's in the Army, stationed at Fort Dix, New Jersey.

Sp/4 Dennis Kaminski is 23 years old. He's due to be released from the service Sept. 17. His big problem last week was how to get back to base on time. The airlines strike "goofed up" his leave plans.

Jerry arrived home on June 17, a week before his birthday. It was an occasion for rejoicing for the Kaminskis. He had been wounded in the left thigh, spent some time in a hospital in Okinawa, then returned to Viet Nam.

He was shot during a night attack by Viet Cong. He received the wound as he ran from the tent where he had been sleeping when the alarm was sounded.

His parents didn't hear from him for six weeks at that time, nor were they notified he had been wounded. That was the time they worried most.

Jerry doesn't talk about the war or Viet Nam. He just wants to enjoy being home.

Both the Kaminski boys attended school in Antioch. Their parents have lived here for 16 years. Mr. Kaminski works at Badger Dairy near Trevor. Mrs. Kaminski works at Active Specialty.

Storm Brings Mystery

A mystery has developed from last week's storm that no one, so far, has been able to solve.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Haase, Rt. 2, Box 467, Antioch, apparently received one-half of a paint job during the high wind.

The white house, the morning after the storm, appeared to have been painted a deep orange-yellow on the north and west sides.

A neighbor, Mrs. Hazel Reimer, reported the strange occurrence to the newspaper. She is intrigued by the mystery.

The Haase home is about 1 1/2 miles south of Antioch on Route 83. The home has white wood siding, as does the garage.

Last Monday morning, after the storm, they discovered that both the house and garage had turned color on the two sides hit by the strong wind.

The windows of the home are not affected by the strange coloring. It looks as though an expert painter had painted the wood around them. Mrs. Haase reports. And where the sheltered side of the house meets the part hit by the wind, the same clear line is shown.

The Haases have found that the strange yellow coloring will wash off, but not with ease. "We have to use a very strong cleaning solution and scrub hard," Mrs. Haase said.

A tree was blown down about one-half block from the Haase home during the storm.

Sewers And Septic Tanks Plague Board

The village board split 3-3 on the question of whether or not to allow the First Church of Christ Scientist to install a septic tank at their new building, rather than hook up to the city sewer. Mayor Ray Toft cast a vote in favor of the proposition, breaking the tie.

Reed Kaiser represented the Christian Science church, requesting the concession. He said installing the sewer line would be an extreme hardship for the church at this time.

Estimates of the cost of installing the sewer were about $5,000 for hooking into one sewer line, and about $2,000 for an alternate route. The cheaper method was undesirable, he said, because it involved a lift station only 30 inches deep which would freeze in the winter.

Kaiser said a previous village board had assured him that the church board would be allowed to install a septic tank. Hence, the added cost had not been planned on. The septic tank installation, Kaiser said, would cost only $350.

Five members of the board expressed reluctance to approve a septic tank. Approval of this system, they said, would certainly lead to a similar request from St. Stephen's Lutheran Church, whose sewer installation will be at least equally expensive.

The board recently issued an ultimatum that Oakwood Knolls residents must hook into sewer mains, and are involved with various problems in the village where septic tanks had been installed and proved unsatisfactory.

Trustee David Nissen said he felt the church should be allowed to install the septic tank, providing the church board would present the village board with a letter agreeing to install the sewer within 5 years. Nissen put the proposal in the form of a motion. Walsh, Meierdick and Wilton voted Nay; Barnstable, Williams and Nissen voted Yea, and the Mayor's deciding vote gave approval.

Kaiser said he would consult with the church board for approval of the five-year limit.

NEW POLICE SQUAD CAR

Bids were submitted for a new police car. Pittman Motors bid $1,950.34 with trade-in for a 1966 Catalina 4-door sedan; Earl Stringer Motors bid $1,744 for a 1966 Dodge Polara, and John Teresi bid $2,150 on an Olds 88. The police committee recommended acceptance of the bid of John Teresi, because it included six-ply tires and other desirable features.

Mayor Toft announced that it had been necessary to replace the squad car wrecked in a crash recently, and that the bid of Pittman Motors had been accepted, at a price of $2,178.16 with trade-in of the wrecked car. A payment of $700 from the insurance company would reduce this price to $1,478.16, he said.

The board approved an ordinance to prohibit parking on Orchard St. between Hillside and David.

The Illinois Mission Children's Home asked approval of tag days in Antioch August 5 and 6. In line with their rule of limiting such requests to one day, the board approved August 6 for tag day.

CELEBRATE MAYOR'S BIRTHDAY

Board activities were momentarily halted to serve a birthday cake in honor of Mayor Toft's birthday.

BRIGHTER LIGHTS

Trustee Robert Wilton said that lights at the corner of Lake and Main are dim, and asked if brighter ones could be installed. Superintendent of Public Works Edgar Simonsen said a new type of light of greater brilliance could be installed, and the board instructed him to try them in two lights.

INSURANCE

The board approved a recommendation of the insurance committee to consolidate insurance on the Scout House. The contract was awarded to the John Romer Agency on their bid of $197.60.

It was reported that Wilford Dairy had removed all discarded refrigerators and junk from their premises adjoining the village park area. A problem created by their burning cartons had been rectified by building a wire burner. Mayor Toft reported, and they were in the process of securing an incinerator.

The board approved a request from Civil Defense Director Ed Frazier of mileage expense on his car when on civil defense business, at expense set at 8¢ a mile.

NEW SIDEWALKS

Trustee Vern Barnstable reported that work on sidewalks on Victoria St. should be completed this week. The village portion of the expense was $1,332, he said.

Barnstable said new sidewalks would next be installed near the high school, then the Scout House and library.

Chairman of the police committee Arthur Meierdick asked approval to purchase vinyl decals for one police car, of a star with "Antioch" in the center. The decals, he said, cost $14 each if purchased separately, $8 each if purchased in lots of six. The board approved purchase of six decals.

Trustee Meierdick reported that officer Fred Elam had been returned to regular duty.

Meierdick asked Police Chief Heick to demonstrate tear gas pens. The tear gas ejectors are the size of a large fountain pen and will throw a spray 8 feet. Each pen contains 8 squirts.

The pens are excellent in handling disorderly persons without the need to use force, Heick said. One squirt, and for 30 minutes a person cannot see. It does no permanent damage and leaves no burn or scarr.

Larger tear gas ejectors, about the size of a flashlight, would be helpful in controlling a mob, Heick said. The board approved purchase of the tear gas equipment at the discretion of the police committee.

Robert Wilton reported that Mid Lakes Mowing has completed mowing of 200 lots in Oakwood Knolls and property owners will be billed.

Edgar Simonsen reported that 190 tons of road gravel were used on the parking area behind the Main St. stores.

Veteran Fire-Fighter Drops Active Duty

Elmer Hunter left the active ranks of the Antioch Fire Department Tuesday night, July 12. He requested that he be put on the inactive list at the regular meeting of the fire department.

His fellow-firemen gave Elmer a standing ovation as he left their ranks after 43 years of service.

Elmer joined the Antioch Fire Department in 1923, ten years after it was organized. "Being a fireman was rugged in those days," he says. "We had a 4-wheeled cart that we carried the hose in. The first fire I went to was a chicken coop down near where the library is, and we had to pull the hose wagon down there. By the time you ran that far pulling the cart, you were no good. That was hard work."

For a fire outside of town, someone rounded up a truck and they loaded the hose cart on the truck. Only trouble was, there was no pressure out in the country, so they had to use a pump.

The Fire Department got its first truck in 1923, shortly after Elmer joined the force, and that was a proud moment, he says. It was the only fire truck in the area. The Antioch Fire Department took care of Salem, Trevor, Russell, they even traveled to Woodworth, Wis., to fight a fire.

They only had thirty feet of hose with the truck, though, and that wasn't always enough. "Our dream was to get more hose," Elmer says, "and finally somebody—I think it was Mrs. Michell or Mrs. Herman—gave us thirty feet more. We went out to Smith's at Channel Lake to try it out and it sucked water sixty feet up that steep bank."

There was no cab or heater on those early trucks. Just a windshield, and it was tough in winter. I guess the fire I remember where we suffered the most was one in Wilmot," Elmer said. "It was 20° below and the roads were icy. We got there, half-frozen, and there was frozen hose lying all over. The hoses had frozen up on the other fire departments. It was 5 o'clock in the morning. We got our hose out and fought the fire. When we got through, our hose was frozen stiff—we couldn't bend it. We had to round up five trucks to haul it home and thaw it out. I remember "Swede" Petersen's coat got wet and froze and he couldn't bend over."

Elmer thinks the worst fire he ever went on was the one that burned King's Drug Store when it was located on Main St. some years ago. But every fire is bad, he says. You never know what you're getting into. He doesn't remember an Antioch fireman ever being badly hurt, but "we were just lucky," he says, "mighty lucky."

The last fire call he went on was the recent A&P fire in the shopping plaza.

Elmer was an engineer throughout his years with the department—that's the official label of the man who drives the truck.

Elmer was born in Antioch, the son of the William Hunters. He attended school here, as did his children. His wife, Martha, is village treasurer. He went in the garage business in Antioch in 1934 and moved to his present location on Route 173 east of Antioch in 1949.

Why does a fireman give up his fire time and sleep for the miserable, dangerous job of fighting fires? Because it's one way of doing some public good, Elmer says. And Antioch, he declares emphatically, has one of the best fire departments in Lake County. He regrets leaving, but "let the young men take over. I've had my

More Money For Roads

The next session of the legislature, it appears, is likely to bring some sizeable tax increases.

Voters will have to decide in November whether or not they will approve an up-dating of the revenue laws. Whether or not they approve the revisions, it seems certain that taxes will have to be raised somewhere along the line to meet growing needs.

The recent conference of the Illinois Highway Commission made it clear that there will have to be tax raises for highway support. Motorists know only too well the great need for improvement in the county's highway. And Highway officials at the conference made it clear that there will have to be more money to even keep the roads as good as they are.

Melvin Amstutz, county highway superintendent, recommended an increase in the motor fuel tax on gasoline (Illinois now has one of the lowest in the nation); a uniform state license fee of $20.50; and authorization for the County Board to levy a $10.00 vehicle tax on all cars in the county.

Amstutz also urged the decentralization of maintenance of state highways, with the state entering into contracts with counties for the upkeep. Wisconsin, he pointed out, has entered into such contracts with most of its counties and has better maintenance than Illinois.

His statement is obviously true. Whether or not the decentralization is the reason for the improved upkeep is difficult to say. Certainly, at least, a county highway superintendent would be more available for protests from outraged citizens than a man in Springfield.

Courthouse Notebook

BY LOU DURKIN

With the memory of last week's racial violence in Chicago fresh in their minds, Waukegan residents are something less than ecstatic at the thought of Dr. Martin Luther King visiting the county seat late in July.

The civil rights leader insists that he advocates achievement of civil rights goals by negotiation and communication and that he abhors violence, but violence seems to follow him like hangers-on follow a winner.

Waukegan has two large concentrations of Negroes which are gradually expanding into areas that were formerly predominantly white.

Thus far there has been no racial violence in Waukegan, but residents there are apprehensive about the results of Dr. King's proposed visit.

Associate Circuit Judge Charles Parker, of McHenry, was to rule this week on evidence presented in a week of testimony in a case charging de facto segregation in city schools.

If Judge Parker rules in favor of the school board which contends its school boundaries are not drawn on racial lines, Dr. King's presence could serve to create a tense atmosphere in Waukegan.

Mayor Robert Sabonjian grew up in an area on Waukegan's south side which had a substantial Negro population and he numbers many of the local Negro leaders among his friends, but this friendship may not be enough to head off some disturbances in the city.

The Human Relations Commission appointed last year may have a chance to show how effective it can be in the face of racial unrest this summer.

Hearings being held about the state by state highway officials to study local highway conditions is only one of several projects underway to lay the groundwork for a massive highway rebuilding program in Illinois.

A state-wide study enlisting the cooperation of county, township and city road officials is being made to determine the present and future needs of the motoring public.

Detailed forms on each type of road in each municipality are being completed by city engineers, road commissioners, and county highway superintendents to develop authoritative evidence to support claims that more money, in huge amounts, will be needed to provide safe and efficient highways and city streets.

A substantial increase in the state motor fuel tax will be a vital bit of legislation for consideration early in the next session of the Illinois General Assembly.

In the last session an increase was approved by the House, but was killed in the Senate because part of the additional revenue would have been diverted to schools.

Because Illinois highways are in such deplorable shape there will probably be pressure for a multi-million dollar bond issue to finance a major re-building program immediately rather than delay essential construction until sufficient funds are available.

Highway officials will also be preparing recommendations for any amendments to the Revenue Article in the state constitution if the people of the state approve changes in the state charter.

These changes would affect county and local taxes for highways and streets primarily to give the local highway authorities greater latitude in the use of highway funds.

In his farewell address to the County Board of Supervisors Dr. Arthur. Baker, who is leaving as head of the County Health Department for a bigger job in New York, made some important suggestions, at least one of which was prompted by hind-sight.

Dr. Baker suggested closer communication between the Health Department and the county board, something that wasn't always evident during his tenure.

Letters to the Editor

I believe a man goes into combat for the defense of the folks back home. But no country, no slogan, no edict, no law, no global pronouncements, no parliamentary decision is ever what he dies for. He dies for the man on his right side or his left. He dies exposing himself so that they or all of them may live often in that order. Greater love hath no man. And there isn't any other word.

Fireworks, Anyone?

I noticed in last week's paper under the "20 Years Ago" column, that Antioch had its own fireworks display. So many children miss out on the real thrill of the Fourth because their parents have to drive too far to see any fireworks. With that big, beautiful football field and the cooperation of our merchants, I'm sure we could have a real blast.

HEAD STARTERS INCREASE

A total of 35,831 pre-school children will participate in Head Start programs in Illinois this summer, according to Thomas C. Jackson, director of the Illinois Office of Economic Opportunity.

This marks an increase of 1,907 children over the summer of 1965 program which involved 33,924 boys and girls. Federal funds granted to Illinois communities for this year's Summer Head Start programs total $5,829,965.

In addition to the summer program, 8,050 boys and girls are enrolled in Head Start classes in full-year centers across the state.

Educators are certain Head Start programs will result in a lessening of the drop-out rate and a general improvement in the earning ability and lives of persons caught in the cycle of poverty.

KC's Install New Officers

St. Peter of Antioch Council of the Knights of Columbus recently installed new officers for 1966-67.

The Knights represent over 100 members from the Antioch-Lake Villa-Lindenhurst area.

The new Grand Knight Albert Smith said that the SOPC's are guided by four basic points—Charity, Unity, Fraternity and Patriotism.

Smith said the Christmas basket program for needy families of all faiths will again be budgeted for this year. Well over $1,000 has been spent on this project over the last few years. In addition, a swing set was donated to the park in Antioch last year. The Knights hope to be able to contribute something to Lake Villa this year.

Thank you and God bless one and all.

How about that? Now men want equal rights with women.

A labor union charges that airlines are discriminating against men by refusing to hire them as stewardesses—or stewards.

They claim they can perform the job as well as women. Maybe women passengers will back them up.

THE GLARE OF PUBLICITY: The senseless murder of eight young women shared the spotlight with riots in Chicago last week. TV coverage of the murders stayed within the bounds of decency, something to be grateful for.

The morbid curiosity of people in general is one of the revolting side-effects of such grisly happenings. What possible pleasure people can get from congregating around the site of such a tragedy is beyond me. They stand in crowds, people who had never seen the murder victims, simply gazing at the building where the horrible violence took place.

The same kind of people chase fire engines, rescue squads and ambulances, getting in the way of the people who can help the sick or injured.

THE LONG, HOT SUMMER is here, indeed. And the threats of civil rights leaders that there would be rioting have come to pass.

Martin Luther King insists he advocates non-violence, but where he goes, violence follows. When the riots end, the Negro is worse off than he was before.

In Chicago, he claimed a victory because the Mayor promised sprinklers on fire hydrants, more pools, more playgrounds. A blessing for children, Negro or white, crowded into hot, dirty city streets. But certainly it can't be what the responsible Negro really wants.

The Christian Science Monitor, in a report on the Chicago race riots, says the riots were started and ended on the orders of a mysterious "Mr. Big." Their reporters talked to young Negro leaders of gangs.

The gangs, which usually fight each other, have been drawn together under "Mr. Big" and the battle cry, "black power."

The riots, in short, which appeared so spontaneous, were carefully planned. It's hard to see how the Negro race as a whole is going to benefit from the concessions gained in such riots.

To pretend you know all the answers is amusing to those who really know some of the answers.

Your Congressman Reports....

By Cong. Robert McClary

No subject appears to have more national interest and at the same time to be more controversial than that of poverty. Certainly, in this land of abundance, the plight of forty million Americans living in substandard conditions is both shocking and shameful. Most Americans recognize that poverty is a great national problem, but there is sharp disagreement as to the best methods for alleviating the plight of the poor.

The Democratic Administration, without adequate investigation or planning, developed legislation embodying a twelve-pronged attack against conditions of poverty. The measure included provisions for the popular Head Start program and the equally unpopular Job Corps. Excessive expenditures approved by the Administration resulted in widespread criticism among Democrats and Republicans alike of the so-called Poverty Programs.

Many of the lush executive positions have been given to Democratic-political leaders who in some cases are arch rivals of elected Party officials.

Salaries in the Office of Economic Opportunity, or the "Poverty Bureau," are far more attractive than those in other branches of the Federal Government. Forty-four OES officials in Washington receive annual salaries totaling almost $1 million, and local and regional OES personnel are attracted from local governments and private industry by the generous offers from OES headquarters.

The Democratic Chairman of the House Committee on Education and Labor, Congressman Adam Clayton Powell of New York, has been rebuffed in his attempt to increase the authorization of funds to fight poverty from $2 billion to $6 billion.

Alternate proposals deserve public support and earnest consideration by all Members of the Congress. In the area of revising the Job Corps, Republican Representatives Albert H. Reiss of Minnesota and Charles E. Goodell of New York have proposed three programs, all to be administered by the Secretary of Labor under the Manpower, Development and Training Act. The proposals are: (1) establishment of "Skill Centers," operated in cooperation with private industry, where valuable vocational training could be provided for many of the Job Corps enrollees; (2) creation of conservation centers where basic training and education in conservation could be provided; and (3) establishment of a military career center, to be operated by the Secretary of Defense in agreement with the Secretary of Labor, where those who have been unable to qualify for military service would be trained in literacy and other skills sufficient to enable them to perform useful military service.

The Republican package is much more detailed, and is described as an "Opportunity Crusade." It falls mainly upon the private economy and individual initiative for improving conditions of the poor. In the final analysis the problem must be recognized as one of people and not physical surroundings. As the attitudes, education and skills of the people involved are upgraded, their economic conditions will improve.

Public concern about the rising crime rate is being reflected in Congressional initiative. The Gallup poll for May 1966 reported that more than 40 percent of the population regard crime as the greatest domestic problem. Recent decisions of the U.S. in an earlier report, and the perplexing proceedings in Chicago involving Sam (Mojo) Giancana have impelled this Member of Congress to introduce some significant measures.

One bill (H.R. 15978) seeks to establish a National Commission on Reform of Federal Criminal Laws. Composed of three U.S. Representatives, three Senators, three Federal Judges and three private citizens, this commission would be charged with recommending amendments to the Federal criminal law to aid in the fight against crime. Staffed by a director, various researchers and investigators and legislative draftsmen, the commission's goal would be concrete recommendations to the 90th Congress.

Another bill (H.R. 15905) is aimed at resolving such situations as that illustrated in the Giancana dilemma. Reported to be a prominent member of the underworld, Giancana was called to appear before a Federal Grand Jury in May 1965. When he refused to testify on the ground that his testimony might be incriminating, the U.S. District Attorney in Chicago, with the approval of the United States Attorney General in Washington, granted Giancana immunity from prosecution in exchange for this testimony. Still refusing to talk, Giancana was held in contempt of court and sentenced to jail by U.S. District Judge William J. Campbell.

When the Grand Jury's term expired, the U.S. Attorney General ordered Giancana released. The U.S. District Attorney felt that some additional charge—such as obstructing justice—should be leveled against Giancana, but the Attorney General overruled the idea. According to the Attorney General, there was no basis for a charge of obstructing justice and "civil contempt" was the only valid basis for jailing Giancana. H. R. 15905 seeks to remedy this defect and to expand the usefulness of this so-called immunity act as a weapon against organized crime.

The public demand for action is completely understandable. The incidence of criminal activity is mounting every year. The 1964 crime rate was 11 per cent higher than in 1963 and 75 percent higher than in 1954. More than 7 million major crimes (murder, rape, burglaries, etc.) were committed last year—or one major crime for every 32 people in the United States. The F.B.I. estimates the annual cost of crime at more than $27 billion.

Commenting on this present situation, Senator John McClellan of Arkansas declared: "...there can be no Great Society unless it is also a safe society. And a safe society cannot be built nor sustained in a climate of crime, corruption and moral decay.... history records that many civilizations have been destroyed from within. Let us heed that warning, lest we succumb to the tyranny of a criminal anarchy."

This sober warning, coupled with the shocking facts of criminal activity throughout the nation, should convince the U.S. Congress to act decisively—now.

We break down a lot sooner from lack of sleep than from overwork.

Officials of Northern Illinois Gas Company report that the indoor gaslights are unique in the area. Paul Eckert, local contractor, is responsible for the excellent job of refurbishing.

School To Vote On Tax Boost

The Emmons school board of directors will ask the voters in the district to approve a bond issue for repairs and an addition to the school and a 21c raise in the educational tax rate.

The special election is set for August 13.

Emmons School district voters defeated the raise of the educational tax on June 4 by a vote of 138-131. It was at first believed that the bond issue had been approved, 138-137. However, because the school had a board of directors, the issue must be approved by a majority of the votes cast. One spoiled ballot meant that only one-half of the votes cast had approved the bond issue.

The August 13 special election will ask for approval of a bond issue of $185,000 for repairs and an addition to the school building, and an increase in the educational tax from .82 per cent to 1.03 per cent.

The taxes extendible under the .82c rate is $37,787.30; with the 1.03 rate, taxes extendible would amount to $47,464.53.

Catalog Sales Firms Appeal Court Decision

The Illinois Supreme Court has decided that foreign mail order firms whose only activity in Illinois is soliciting sales by means of catalogs and flyers must collect the Illinois Use Tax on all sales to customers in the state.

An appeal from the decision has been filed in the U. S. Supreme Court.

Maurice W. Scott, Executive Secretary of the Taxpayers Federation of Illinois, notes that this appeal will be of unusual importance since it affects 4,206 mail order firms with sales over $24 billion throughout the United States. Twenty-one states have statutory provisions specifically requiring collection of use taxes by sellers. The Illinois law requiring such collection became effective July 17, 1961. Since Illinois is one of the country's leading industrial and commercial centers, a considerable portion of such sales each year is made in Illinois, resulting in sizeable amounts being contributed to the General Fund of the state.

Both opponents and proponents of the junior college will have a chance to present their views at the meeting, which will start at 7:30 p.m. Opposition to the plan has already been voiced by Lake Forest, Highland Park and Barrington. Those communities wish to be included in a different junior college district.

MARRIAGES, DIVORCES

The number of marriages recorded in the state during 1965 totaled 100,978, Dr. Franklin D. Yoder, director of the Illinois Department of Public Health, has announced.

During 1964, a total of 97,171 marriages was recorded.

The Diplomatic Pouch

WASHINGTON, D. C. The following letters were recently answered by the Department of State.

I wish to know the exact price of the building the Panama Canal. Please rush. A.B.R. Boston, Mass.

Dear A.B.R.:

The construction of the Canal cost $366,650,000, according to the Report on United States Relations with Panama issued by the Subcommittee on Inter-American Affairs of the Committee on Foreign Affairs, 90th Congress, second session (Washington, 1960). The Department of State has no figures of its own to offer since the construction of the Canal was the responsibility of other agencies of the United States Government.

Will the military and economic aid that United States is now giving South Vietnam be repayable to this country?

A.M.R. Mattituck, N. Y.

Dear Mr. R.:

Because of the heavy demands the wartime situation places upon the resources of the Vietnamese economy, the majority of current aid to Vietnam does not require repayment in the usual sense.

Just as in the case of Korea during and immediately following the conflict there, the difficulties of fighting the Communists insurgents have so reduced the Vietnamese earnings of dollars and other foreign exchange earning potential that we could give them almost no help if we expected repayment in dollars. Once reconstruction is well under way at the end of hostilities, we expect that the Vietnamese will also develop a capacity to begin paying for aid in foreign exchange on a loan basis just as the Koreans are now doing.

However, the Vietnamese do in one way make payment for a great majority of our aid. For example, aid commodities sent to Vietnam under the U. S. Commercial Import Program are paid for by the Vietnamese private importers in local currency, and these local currency amounts are deposited to the account of the U. S. Government. This Vietnamese currency is then turned over to the government of Vietnam to be used in support of programs mutually agreed upon by the U.S. and Vietnamese Governments. The majority of the U.S. surplus agricultural products exported to Vietnam under the Food for Peace program are similarly paid for in local currency. Together these two programs represent about 70% of our total non-military assistance to Vietnam.

Moreover, to establish the principle of aid repayment, certain aid has been given on a loan basis, bearing interest at higher rates if repaid in local currency than if repaid in dollars. These U. S. loans since the mid-1950's total approximately $92 million and center on such development projects as the Vietnamese railroad, improvement of municipal water supply, and modernization of the electric power and telecommunication system.

Collegian Alice Young of the Antioch Chapter for Women of the Moose, was guest speaker at the Fox Lake Chapter, Monday evening, July 11, with 49 members in attendance. Magdalene Remsing, the new Deputy Grand Regent, was also present at this meeting and witnessed what appeared to be a very unusual circumstance. The members all watched Nita Mahoney and Lucille Rinda, the two collegians of Fox Lake remove their own green tassels from their caps and present themselves with the red tassels, which indicates their second year of service as a collegian. Usually a former collegian of the subject chapter will present this honor to the receiving collegians, but Fox Lake, being a fairly new chapter and a small one, acquired these two co-workers as their very first last year and therefore they had to present their honors to themselves.

As guest speaker for the evening, Alice Young held all members in captivity when she presented her speech. Lining up all collegians from the Antioch Chapter at the altar, plus those of Fox Lake, she proceeded to give a brief history of each one, stating the year they entered into the collegian degree. Antioch has 10 in all and eight of them were present at this meeting. They are: Blanche Horton, 1965 (not present), E. Jane Meyer, 1958, Harriet Grewe, 1959, Mildred Gillum, 1960, May Palmer, 1961, Jane Verkest, 1962 (not present), Gertrude Good, 1963, Alice Young, 1964, Gerry Mark, 1965 and Gladys Schroeder in 1966.

She ended her speech by congratulating the Collegians of Fox Lake and presenting each one with a gift. The members all remained for refreshments, following the meeting.

On Tuesday night, the Antioch Collegians traveled to the Crystal Lake Chapter where Gerry Mark was senior Regent for the evening, and on Thursday, they all traveled to the Des Plaines Chapter, where they once again participated in the floor work.

An enrollment of new members was held at the Antioch Moose Lodge, for the Loyal Order on Saturday evening, July 16. The Antioch Ritual team performed the ceremony for the five new members enrolled. They were, Richard Rogers, Fred Freitag, and Richard Swiderek, all sponsored by Glenn Siedschlag; Robert Dimity sponsored by Herbert Wood and Edward Valek, sponsored by Robert Hurst, Bessie Barnes, accordionist, entertained the new members following the enrollment ceremony.

The Antioch Moose is having a benefit dance this Saturday evening, July 23, with the proceeds going for the remodeling of the New Face for the Moose Lodge. The Twilights will furnish the music for dancing and refreshments will be available for a small donation.

The Birthday dinner for Loyal Order of Moose will be held at the Moose Home on Wednesday evening, July 27, honoring all members of the Antioch Lodge who have birthdays in the month of July.

Preparations are being made for the annual lodge picnic which will take place at Lake Shangri-La again this year on August 21. Last year over 300 Moose families and friends showed up for the picnic making it a complete success. This year, governor Richard Jorgensen is hoping for a repeat performance. More details will be given at a later date.

Viet-Na-Mom Troupe To Entertain Soldiers

Army recruits at Ft. Campbell, Kentucky, who will soon be heading overseas to take part in the fighting in Viet Nam will be entertained by a group of Lake and McHenry county entertainers Saturday, July 23.

Members of the Viet-Na-Mom Airlift troupe which was organized earlier this year will make the trip.

Henry Bogdala, chairman of the Viet-Na-Mom Airlift, said: "This visit to Fort Campbell is a far cry from our original plans to take a group of entertainers and a representative Lake County mother overseas as a countermeasure to peace demonstrations and draft card burning."

"However, the group feels its commitment to the fighting men will be honored by making this trip at the request of the Fort Campbell entertainment officer."

The troupe is scheduled to leave from Bertrand's Lanes in Waukegan at 8 p.m., July 22. They will arrive at Fort Campbell the next morning. Two shows will be presented by the troupe at the base auditorium and then they will tour the hospitals in smaller units.

Mrs. Leo Blocks, of Aptakisic, who had been selected as the Viet-Na-Mom, will be unable to accompany the entertainers because of illness, according to Bogdala.

Teachers Train For Adult Education

Ray Page, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, today announced that 30 scholarships are available to Illinois teachers for training in adult basic education. Recipients of the scholarships will attend a workshop at Wayne State University, Detroit, Mich., from August 8 through September 1.

The scholarships are offered by the United States Office of Education to strengthen the National Adult Basic Education Teacher Training Program. Nine workshops are offered throughout the nation in a cooperative program with the Office of Education, the National University Extension Association and state departments of education.

Recipients of the scholarships will receive $75.00 per week plus $15.00 for each dependent and transportation costs.

First priority for the scholarships will be given full time teachers of adult basic education. Others eligible are part time teachers of adult education, teachers who will participate in adult education for the first time this fall and prospective teachers in the adult education field.

Superintendent Page said that the need for qualified teachers is most urgent. He pointed out that Illinois has 78 full and part time adult basic education centers in operation at this time. He said that full time adult education centers will be opened in Decatur and Danville this fall. Other centers providing full time programs are located at East St. Louis, Eldorado, Cairo, Mattoon, Peoria, Rockford, Mt. Vernon, Chicago and Joliet.

Finds Refuge After Storm

Mrs. Jack (Vera) Anderson, Camp Lake Oaks, found a temporary home quickly after the storm Monday, July 11, made her home uninhabitable.

Mrs. Anderson's home was severely damaged when a tree about 4 1/2 feet in diameter broke in the storm and crashed through the roof.

With the help of her insurance agent, Mrs. Anderson started looking for a temporary home. They called Tiffany Arms. The apartments are unfurnished, but Mrs. Louis Capano, manager, promptly arranged for her daughter, Edie, to move in with the Capanos and loan her apartment to Mrs. Anderson, furnished.

Committee Supports New Revenue Article

A group of 99 prominent Illinois citizens has been named to a state-wide committee in support of a new revenue article for the Illinois Constitution.

The committee includes business, industrial and labor leaders; professional men; prominent educators; representatives of Illinois agriculture and state officials.

The citizens committee is spearheading an aggressive statewide campaign to urge adoption of an up-to-date revenue article to replace the antiquated tax system upon which Illinois' state and local government has relied for revenue.

The proposed new revenue article will be submitted to Illinois voters on a blue ballot in the coming November election.

The committee members were announced by William J. Crowley, Homewood, chairman of the Citizens' Committee for a New Revenue article. Crowley is executive vice president of Northern Illinois Gas Co.

Approve Prefix Name For Dairy Herd

Thomas L. Doolittle, Antioch, will have the exclusive use of the prefix "Doolittle" in naming all Registered Holstein dairy animals bred in that herd.

This prefix name use has been granted by Holstein-Friesian Association of America and has become a part of official breed records at the organization's headquarters in Brattleboro, Vermont.

In using an exclusive prefix name for his animals, the purebred Holstein breeder establishes a "trade mark" which is used in all published information concerning the performance of his dairy animals.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Truth" is the subject of the Bible Lesson-Sermon to be considered at all Christian Science services this Sunday. One of the central themes will be Jesus' parable of the sower whose seed fell by the wayside, on stony ground, and among choking thorns—but other fell into good ground, and brought forth fruit, some an hundred-fold, some sixtyfold, some thirtyfold (Matthew 13).

Related passages to be read from the denominational textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, will include these lines: "The spiritual sense of truth must be gained before Truth can be understood. This sense is assimilated only as we are honest, unselfish, loving, and meek. In the soil of an 'honest and good heart' the seed

Made from a star-spangled recipe that's 25 years old

The cake above is something we whipped up to help celebrate the 25th birthday of the United States Savings Bond program.

Although there will be no confetti, no horn-blowing—in fact, no party, there are a number of reasons to celebrate this quarter-century observance.

Since that first one was sold on May 1, 1941, Americans have bought more than $150 billion worth of Series E and H Bonds and still buy them at a $4-$5 billion-per-year clip.

About $100 billion have been cashed and spent for homes, college tuition, new cars and furniture, emergencies—and helping dreams come true for millions of American families.

Over half the Bonds bought are purchased on the Payroll Savings Plan—a voluntary, automatic plan that has worked wonders for people who might not otherwise save a nickel.

Today there are outstanding almost $50 billion in Bonds—a solid financial rock which millions of Americans stand on.

And today, above all, Savings Bonds are a sure way for all Americans to support our men in Vietnam. While they are there, none of us can remain aloof on the sidelines.

NOW—SAVINGS BONDS PAY 4.15%!

Interest on new E and H Bonds you purchase has been raised to 4.15% when held to maturity. E Bonds mature faster—now in just 7 years. Your old Bonds will earn more, too. Savings Bonds are better to buy, and hold, than ever.

Set Records On Fast Track

The track at the Wilmet Speedway was in perfect racing condition and new track records were set by Ron Justen of McHenry for both the one lap qualifying time of 53 mph and a new 25 lap feature record of 51.65 mph.

Plenty of exciting action kept the fans jumping with the action starting in the first heat when Pop Kline of McHenry and Larry Nau of Milwaukee mixed it up in the East turn.

The Semi was a slam bang affair with only 6 of the starting field in action at the finish. Bob Amborn of Bassett, Wis., stopped inches short of the judges stand after tangling with Chad Johnson and tearing up the infield fence.

Rifles Train For Opener

Coaches Gene Cichowski and Angelo Dabiero labored their Lake County Rifles gridders through 100 degree temperatures during the first week of practice. The Rifles are conditioning for their intra-squad game to be played Saturday, August 6th—time and place to be announced.

Some fifty hopeful veterans and rookies are, girding for a berth on this year's squad. All-American quarterback Lew Flinn of Barrington promptly elated the new Rifles coaching staff by tossing several long aeriels to the Rifles star receiver, Warren Nicholas. Flinn was the leading passer in the Central States League in '65 with some 23 touchdowns and 1850 yards to his credit. Nicholas led the league as a receiver.

Another star receiver and one of the league's leading scorers was Jim Bednar, who was on the receiving end of Flynn's passes. The Rifles' most versatile performer, Ron Curry, led all the backs in the first week's sprints. The Rifles' running tackle, 6'7" John Gavurnik, came into camp at 275 lbs. and quickly began a reduction program to get his weight down to playing size of 255. Gavurnik was a former member of the Chicago Bears and Detroit Lions.

A latecomer expected in the training quarters will be half-back Bill Bodle of Highland Park, who played four years of football at the U. of Pittsburgh and last year with the Washington Redskins. Bodle is expected to bolster the Rifles' running attack.

Coach Cichowski has promised his gridders the tempo of practice will pick up with a probable scrimmage next week.

The duiler the visitor the longer he stays.

Outsider Wins At Speedway

Paul Burrow, of Sycamore, invaded the Waukegan Speedway Saturday night and picked up most of the marbles as he won his heat race in a thrilling last curve effort and then led every lap to gain a feature triumph. Jim Cossman wrestled his car back onto all four wheels after a near spill and raced to second spot ahead of defending champion, Dennis Burgan.

WILD & WOOLY SUNDAY NIGHT
A wild and wooly night of racing was presented Sunday night at the Waukegan Speedway before another large audience. The hotly contested feature race in the modified division found Whitley Harris winning by the closest of margins over John Reimer, even though Reimer had taken over the lead with one lap to go. Jack Ester burst through the pack to grab an early lead in the late model feature and race on to an easier win. Toby Aaron, who figured in a spectacular flip July 2, here at the Speedway, again rolled Sunday, this time in the heat race.

The three racing Auserl brothers, took three checkered flags at Waukegan Sunday. Fran won the second heat in a borrowed car and Bill won the last heat in his own racer. Homer, not to be left out, came from the rear of the semi-feature and passed brother Fran to win the event. Jack Ester was the only double winner of the night in either division as he won the second heat and then ran away with the feature event. Odell Jones and later, Dennis Burgan, each spun while running second. Ken Becker took second money while Jim Cossman was third. Fastest qualifier, Dan Kalous was fourth and Mike Wolf crossed the line in fifth.

There will be a powder puff derby next Saturday night. A celebrity is a person who works hard to become well-known and then wears dark glasses to avoid being recognized.

Against girls from Golfview Tavern in Trevor. Admission is free.

The Merchants Boosters game was called off because of a wet field and will be played Sunday, July 24 at 2 p.m.

The Advertiser-Merchant games scheduled for Friday was called off to allow for

Safety Measures For Summer In The Water

To make the summer in the surf safe and pleasurable—and to avert or reduce the toll of last summer's 6,000 drownings—the American Red Cross (ARC) and the American Medical Association (AMA) recommended the following safety rules:

*Learn to swim. The ability to swim, the ARC points out, helps you to overcome the fear and panic that grips nonswimmers in a water emergency. If you can swim a little, learn to swim better. The Red Cross booklet, "Teaching Johnny to Swim," is an easy-to-follow illustrated guide for parents teaching very young ones to swim. It is available from local Red Cross chapters—as is free swimming instruction.

*NEVER swim alone. A companion may save your life. *Swim in a safe place. The presence of a lifeguard usually indicates an area is safe. "No trespassing" signs or signs warning of danger should be taken seriously. *NEVER dive unless you know the water is deep enough and that there are no submerged objects such as rocks.

*NEVER depend upon a tube or inflated toy to support you in water where you cannot manage without them. They've been known to spring leaks, leaving swimmers helpless and in grave danger.

*If you haven't done much swimming, take it easy the first few times. Recognize your limitations. *Don't swim when you're tired, overheated, or full from a recent meal.

Rescue Tips
*Don't try to effect a swimming rescue unless you know how. It's preferable

EXAMS ON PREPARING

A special examination will be given next September 26 and 27 for accountants and others who wish to represent taxpayers in matters before the Internal Revenue Service. Details of the examination and application forms will be available from District Offices of the IRS after June 1. An enrolment fee of $25 is required when the application is filed.

Tax practitioners who are not certified public accountants, attorneys or qualified former IRS employees, must establish their technical competence before they can represent their clients in tax matters before the Revenue Service. Technical and ethical standards for this right to practice are set by the Treasury Department. Last year about 800 practitioners took the exam. The enrolment program for practitioners is the responsibility of the Director, Audit Division, in the National Office of the Revenue Service.

Check off these points on your personal scorecard: age? weight? occupation? Do you get some exercise every day? just on occasional weekends? or just on your vacation? Take these factors into account in pacing yourself sensibly.

*Install an automatic alarm system to warn of trespassers. *Keep at poolside life-saving devices such as a floatable "shepherd's crook," a lightweight pole with a large metal hood at one end. It enables a nonswimmer to pull a swimmer to safety. *Make competent adult supervision a must. "Temporarily unattended children," says the AMA, contributes to more drownings than any other single cause. No one should swim alone. Even expert swimmers can suffer injury or fatigue.

With these sensible rules in mind, do go near the water!

Home Town People Stage "South Pacific"

Ahoy Matey! Yes, Matey, I mean you! How would you like to join me in a "Behind the Porthole" rehearsal of PM&L's new play "South Pacific"?

Pull up a deck chair, relax and together let's try to find out what makes live theatre, the life-line of show business, tick. At least feel its home-town pulse.

We could tell everyone that South Pacific will open at 8:30 p.m. this Saturday and Sunday and will run the following Friday, Saturday and Sunday, but these particulars you can read in the many advertisements and posters around town.

So... Instead, through OUR porthole we see a theatre brimming over with enthusiastic, busy people putting together, like small pieces of a jigsaw puzzle, a production for us to enjoy.

We see Ken Smouse on stage acting out his role as Emile DeBeque and tune our ears to the fine quality of his voice as he sings "Some Enchanted Evening." The next minute we hear his voice coming from the depths of the theatre directing the male chorus on how to imagine the stage as four sections to attain better staging effect. The endurance and versatility of Mr. Smouse as actor, singer and director will be displayed Saturday night when the pieces of the puzzle all fit together.

We have to admire the manner and stage presence of Sydney Morton, who portrays Ensign Nellie Forbush, when she steps into a shower stall, and despite the noise and commotion beyond the footlights, "Washes that man right out of her hair." Especially since the shower stall was nothing but a few pieces of small boards nailed together. We understand this gal holds down a full-time job besides raising her three children and comes down from Kenosha for rehearsals. I wonder how she manages to fill all her free time?

Did someone get hurt and call for a nurse? Oh no! That's just one of the cast trying on her costume. Mr. Smouse is going to be one of the nurses too? OOPS! Maybe we do need a nurse. One of the little Abderholdens just fell over a ladder in the aisle. Anyway that's better than the little Smouse boy toppling off the top of that ladder propped against the wall.

Now they are starting to rehearse again. This should be scene 4. No, the last scene was scene 4? This will Club, fourth place. Honorable mention awards were presented to Carl Schleifer, Barrington's Flynn Valley Club; Lorelei Hertel, Grayslake Ag. Club; Tracy Wittmer, Grayslake Ag. Club; Denise Billeck, Grayslake Ag. Club; and Mary Kay Flynn, Mundelein Elms Club.

Other winners in the 14 to 19 year old age group are: Linda Koehler, Grayslake Club, second place; Carol Strouse, Barrington's Flynn Valley, third place; and Karen Knutson, Grayslake Ag. Club, fourth place.

Honorable mention award winners are Ann Peretti, Grayslake Ag. Club; Pat Hromadka, Oak Grove Wizards; Barbara Wertke, Volo Busy Bees; Maureen McNamara, Happy Hayceeds; Loren Wagner, Volo Ag. Club; and Roger Shanks, Happy Hayceeds.

The judges of the essays were Mrs. Bernice Just, Waukegan News-Sun columnist; Joe Soulak, Grayslake, and W. A. Kates, Deerfield.

A drama and a golf student were among the freshmen who signed up for the fall quarter at WIU last week. Ed Jaronik of Waukegan on the right will major in business, but he said he came to WIU mainly because of the outstanding golf teams coached by Harry Mussatto. Del Church of Antioch (with the tie) has other interests — drama. While he will major in business, he may minor in dramatics. In high school he had a role in The Mouse That Roared.

SAFEGUARD YOUR HEALTH

A PUBLIC SERVICE OF THE ILLINOIS STATE MEDICAL SOCIETY

DON'T IGNORE SINUS INFECTION

Millions of people suffer sinusitis.

If you're among them, you're probably confused as to just what this condition is, and what can be done about it.

Sinusitis is an infection of the mucous membranes of one or more of your eight nasal sinuses. These sinuses — which add resonance to the voice — are cavities or air spaces located in the cheekbones, forehead and on either side of and behind the nose.

While upper respiratory illnesses, such as colds, are the most common causes of acute sinus infection, it also can be triggered by an emotional upset.

Chronic sinusitis, on the other hand, usually stems from allergies like hay fever.

Other less frequent causes include obstructions to a sinus opening or poor health habits, such as lack of sleep or excessive smoking.

Whether the infection is acute or chronic, its symptoms are much like the common cold — sneezing, draining of nasal secretions, head pain and soreness in the affected area. Fever and swelling around the eyes may also occur.

While surgery is sometimes necessary to correct the situation, most sinusitis sufferers can get relief from their physician.

Whatever you do, don't ignore a sinus infection, for it could lead to serious complications if not treated properly. And don't become a target for over-the-counter sprays, inhalators and other "cure-alls." Taken without medical supervision, these products could easily irritate a sinus condition and even cause additional problems.

Spring is a good time to break the vicious cycle of automated work and passive recreation. But whatever the season, start with a short easy workout. Pace yourself gradually and stick to one basic rule: blow the whistle when you've had enough.

LIVER—THE EASY WAY

It's easy to get liver into the diet by using liver sausage or Braunschweiger, the smoked variety of this meat. Spread on toasted bread or buns, top with 1/4-inch thick slices of tomato and equal amounts of mayonnaise and Parmesan cheese. Bake in a very hot oven (450° F.) 6 to 8 minutes or until cheese mixture is hot and bubbly.

AVERAGE GROWER FEATURED

Floriculture at the 1966 Illinois State Fair will include classes for more commonly known flowers, according to the department superintendent, Mrs. Sue Doolin of Ashland.

Mrs. Doolin has arranged this year's program with the average flower grower in mind and hopes to attract a more varied group of exhibitors than in previous years. An example is the new class, "Across Our Fruited Plain," designed to depict the bounty of the state, and open to any material grown in field or garden.

Flower shows will be held each day of the fair, Aug. 12 through Aug. 21, on the main floor of the Illinois building.

LISTEN AND LEARN

The politicians are now campaigning for election. They will ultimately represent you. Why don't you get out and attend the meetings and luncheons where they are speaking and evaluate what they say in your own mind, weighing it with what you know to be true, before you decide which one to vote for. — Crystal Lake News and McHenry County Guide.

be scene 2? Oh well, the puzzle pieces can't always fit together just right.

Ah!! A love scene between the beautiful native girl, Liat, played by Nancy Seifarth and Lt. Joseph Cable, played by Lloyd Pedersen. Just as we are enthralled with Liat's languid movements, our ears pick up a child's voice behind us saying, "Mommy, does he know that's my Aunt Nancy?" Now if that doesn't tend to break you up!! The mommy is Producer of the show, Garnet Oddsen and the indignant niece is her daughter, Cathy.

"They are coming to take her away, Ho, Ho, Ha, Ha, He, He." Who? Laughing Bloody Mary, played by Charlotte Worswick. When? Please, AFTER the show, we wouldn't want anyone to miss her wistful rendition of "Bali Hai."

We can't leave our port-hole without mentioning Dr. Al Bucar whose mere presence on stage tends to perk up the audience. Even the cast catches a certain magnetism from him. He portrays Luther Billis in South Pacific and no one, not even the cast, knows how many of his rehearsal shenanigans he'll carry over to opening

Now that we've peaked "Behind the Porthole," let's take the voyage to see "South Pacific." I've got my tickets and you can reserve yours by calling 395-3613.

Later, 30 friends and relatives attended a breakfast at Smart's Country House in Antioch. Among the guests were the Lester Hamlin, John Schuelers, Elmer Sheehans, Mesdames Minnie Hart, Nancy Reichardt, Ellen Peterson, Helen Keisler, Mary Williamson and Betty Vaughn. During August they plan to visit a shrine in Burlington, Wis., and St. Mary's Seminary in Mundelein. Also a Religious Art exhibit at the Art Museum in Chicago. Credit will be given to the girls when they baby sit for the Salad Bar Luncheon committee mothers, while they serve on July 20 at Prince of Peace Church.

Ronnie Kaufmann is getting his basic training at Fort Polk, La. He left three weeks ago. He is the son of Tom and Theresa Kaufmann.

Baseball News

The players on the Dodgers Baseball team will be wearing new caps, thanks to Hugh Myers of Myers Standard Station, co-sponsor of the team. He donated 15 major league batting helmets to the team and 9 to the All-Star team. The Lindenhurst Police are the other co-sponsors.

Tom Martin pitched all the way through the All-Star game Sunday afternoon when they played against the Round Lake All Stars, winning 3 to 2. John Cola, Jr., who plays shortstop and outfield, hit a home run, the first of the game. The week before the Round Lake squad beat the Lake Villa boys 6 to 3. Bill Crutchfield is managing the All-Stars with Dudley Mertes, Jim Jacob, Jr., and Pete Schmeisser coaching. The winning ball was autographed by all the boys on the team and given to Jim Nicolai of the American Legion in thanks for letting them play on the grounds while they held their chicken barbecue.

The Lake Villa Jr. Baseball league will meet at the Lake Villa Bank on Wednesday, July 20, after the game, about 8:30 p.m. All interested persons are urged to attend.

Bridal Shower

Florence Gruszczyk gave a bridal shower for Margaret (Peggy) Heick of Fairfield Road last Thursday evening.

A shower was also held last Sunday in Ingleside, given by Mrs. Alfred R. (June) Jilly of Round Lake, sister-in-law of the groom-elect. Twenty-six relatives and friends brought a variety of gifts for their home.

Peggy and James Jilly planned to be married July 31, but since he recently went into the Sea-Bees, and is stationed at Davisville, Rhode Island, arrangements are being made for August 7, at St. James Church in Highwood. The ceremony will be at 4 p.m. The reception will be held at the Lindenhurst Civic Center.

Peggy is the daughter of Jack and Pauline Heick, and Jim is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred E. Jilly, 1017 Lakeview in Ingleside.

Breaks Ankle

Three year old Mark Gruszczyk broke his ankle when he caught his foot in the wheel of a bicycle, while his brother Mike rode him. They both suffered face, arm and leg scratches when they fell in the gravel. Mark was in Victory Hospital a day and a half while he had his foot put in a cast.

Child Abuse Law Turns Up Over 400 Cases

Nearly 500 cases of suspected child abuse—about 2 1/2 times the original estimate—may be recorded during the first year of the Illinois child abuse law.

This somber prediction was made by Cyril H. Winking, director of the Department of Children and Family Services, who revealed that 443 cases have been reported during the first eleven months.

"These reports, which most often reflect tragic events related to unstable families, are a real cause for concern," Winking said.

"The only encouragement we can derive from the volume of reports is that the Illinois law is doing a good job of bringing these cases to our attention. Our agency is geared to provide child protection and other social services designed to stabilize the families," he said.

"But one can't help thinking what may have been happening and going unnoticed before the law was passed," he added.

Beatings, fractures, malnutrition and burns continue to head the list of types of abuse reported, but each case has its own unique elements.

Winking said evidence in isolated cases indicates that a child may be abused because the male partner in a marriage doubts that he is the father of the child.

There have been 46 deaths of children reported under the law, which requires physicians, other practitioners and hospitals to report cases of serious abuse or neglect to the Department within 24 hours of the examination of the child.

The law suspends the privileged relationship between physician and patient in such cases, and protects the doctor or other individual against suit for damages.

Winking said the rather alarming volume of reports has caused the Department to expand its efforts to make sure that all doctors and hospitals in the state are aware of their responsibilities. He said social workers in each of the Department's eight regions are making a hospital canvass to make sure that medical personnel, especially those who work in emergency rooms, realize what steps must be taken as soon as a decision is made that sufficient grounds exist for suspecting child abuse.

RULES FOR SAFE PASSING

"About 10,000 traffic accidents were caused last year by improper passing on Illinois streets and highways. The defensive driver will not pass another vehicle when it is not safe to do so. Before you pass make sure that you have plenty of road space to complete the passing maneuver without an accident.

"Before starting your passing maneuver make sure the road ahead is clear of oncoming traffic before you start around the car in front of you. A defensive driver will also check the road behind to avoid the car trying to pass him.

"The average time it takes to pass another vehicle at 60 miles per hour is 10 seconds! At that speed you will need nearly one-half mile of clear road space to pass safely. The best rule to follow is—if you are in doubt don't pass." —The Advertiser-Advance, El Paso.

EDUCATION A NECESSITY

It is important to ask the question "What's an education good for anyway?" The answer to that question is simple. Jobs demand it. Employers insist on it. So you'd better plan on having what it really takes to get the kind of job you want. You need a good education to get and hold a good job.

The smaller your education, the smaller the job you'll get. The smaller the salary, too. It is a fact, you really cut off your future when you cut out of school. Any school. At any level. If you are in school now... stay there! Learn all you can for as long as you can. If you're out of school, there are plenty of ways to get valuable training outside the classroom.

Remember, students, a good education isn't a luxury today. It's an absolute necessity.

AT FAIR

Aquarama, the Theatre of the Sea, will be one of the more unusual presentations at the 1966 Illinois State Fair. Trained porpoises, rare tropical fish, an electric eel, lectures and films will make up Aquarama's one-the-hour show at the Independent Midway near the Iron Mine on Main Street.

Aquarama will arrive at the State Fairgrounds by plane. About five extra porpoises will be brought to the fairgrounds because of the animals' delicacy. Porpoises are subject to many human diseases, exhibit balky mannerisms and tire easily when overworked.

VEAL ROLLS FEATURE EGG, BACON FILLING

Light accents for warm weather menus are provided by delicately flavored meats like veal.

Cutlets made from the round (leg) of veal can be pounded and rolled to hold a filling, explains Reba Staggs, noted meat expert. She suggests chopped hard-cooked egg, mushrooms and uncooked bacon, also chopped. This would provide a savory, flavored fat which is needed since veal has almost no fat of its own.

To develop flavor, slow baking or simmering with moisture contributed by canned tomatoes is necessary for this recipe. Tomato liquid thickened with flour provides well-flavored gravy for the entree.

Veal Rolls De Luxe 2 veal round steaks, cut 1/2 inch thick 1 slice bacon, uncooked 1 hard-cooked egg, chopped 1 teaspoon finely chopped onion 1 can (2 oz.) mushroom pieces if desired 2 tablespoons lard or bacon drippings Salt and pepper 1 1/2 cups canned tomatoes Flour for gravy

Cut bacon into small squares and combine with chopped egg, onion and 2 tablespoons mushrooms. Cut veal into 6 pieces approximately 3 x 4 1/2 inches each. Remove bone. Pound veal pieces and spread with bacon and egg mixture. Roll and fasten with a wooden pick. Brown rolls in lard or drippings. Season. Add tomatoes and remaining mushrooms. Cover and cook in a slow oven (325° F.) or simmer on top of the range, 45 minutes to 1 hour or until tender. Remove rolls, thicken tomato liquid for gravy. 3 to 4 servings.

No matter how bad the movie at a drive-in theater is, most patrons manage to love every minute of it.

REALLY A BARGAIN

Quoted from the Onarga Leader-Review: "Rising prices bedevil great numbers of American families. Inflation has cut deeply into the dollar's purchasing power and continues to cut. Yet, there are essentials that all of us buy which can be regarded as bargains today. And one of them is food."

"A publication of an eastern food chain system tells the story. In 1912 the average family had an income of $11 a week and spent 40% of it for food. Today that average income exceeds $125 and only $25 of it goes for food—and it is more and better food."

"Comparisons with other countries are revealing, too. The American worker's food bill runs to about 19% of his earnings. In England the figure is 20%; in France 31%; in Italy 45%—and in Russia a staggering 53%!"

"The productive power and efficiency of the American farmer must be given much of the credit for this. But other factors play a major role as well. That is the case with American retailing. Working on the mass distribution principle, typical retailers operate at a profit that is almost unbelievably low. The chain store publication points out that the average family spends $1.170 a year for its food—and the average retail profit on that sum is just $15. Yes—food is really a bargain."

Set Records On Fast Track

The track at the Wilmet Speedway was in perfect racing condition and new track records were set by Ron Justen of McHenry for both the one lap qualifying time of 53 mph and a new 25 lap feature record of 51.65 mph.

Plenty of exciting action kept the fans jumping with the action starting in the first heat when Pop Kline of McHenry and Larry Nau of Milwaukee mixed it up in the East turn.

The Semi was a slam bang affair with only 6 of the starting field in action at the finish; Bob Amborn of Bassett, Wis., stopped inches short of the judges stand after tangling with Chad Johnson and tearing up the infield fence.

Carl Tiedke was the Semi winner followed by Jack Dehne, Chad Johnson, Carl Cerny and Bruce Czajkowski.

Heat winners: Harold Gutchie, Kenosha; Jack Dehne, McHenry; Harold Gutchie; Ron Justen.

Rifles Train For Opener

Coaches Gene Cichowski and Angelo Dabiero labored their Lake County Rifles gridders through 100 degree temperatures during the first week of practice. The Rifles are conditioning for their intra-squad game to be played Saturday, August 6th—time and place to be announced.

Some fifty hopeful veterans and rookies are girding for a berth on this year's squad. All-American quarterback Lew Flinn of Barrington promptly elated the new Rifles coaching staff by tossing several long aeriols to the Rifles star receiver, Warren Nicholas. Flinn was the leading passer in the Central States League in '65 with some 23 touchdowns and 1850 yards to his credit. Nicholas led the league as a receiver.

Another star receiver and one of the league's leading scorers was Jim Bednar, who was on the receiving end of Flinn's passes. The Rifles' most versatile performer, Ron Curry, led all the backs in the first week's sprints.

The Rifles' massive tackle, 6'7" John Gavurnik, came into camp at 275 lbs. and quickly began a reduction program to get his weight down to playing size of 255. Gavurnik was a former member of the Chicago Bears and Detroit Lions.

A latecomer expected in the training quarters will be half-back Bill Bodle of Highland Park, who played four years of football at the U. of Pittsburgh and last year with the Washington Redskins. Bodle is expected to bolster the Rifles' running attack.

Coach Cichowski has promised his gridders the tempo of practice will pick up with a probable scrimmage next week.

The duller the visitor the longer he stays.

Outsider Wins At Speedway

Paul Burrow, of Sycamore, invaded the Waukegan Speedway Saturday night and picked up most of the marbles as he won his heat race in a thrilling last curve effort and then led every lap to gain a feature triumph. Jim Cossman wrestled his car back onto all four wheels after a near spill and raced to second spot ahead of defending champion, Dennis Burgan.

WILD & WOOLY SUNDAY NIGHT

A wild and wooly night of racing was presented Sunday night at the Waukegan Speedway before another large audience. The hotly contested feature race in the modified division found Whitey Harris winning by the closest of margins over John Reimer, even though Reimer had taken over the lead with one lap to go. Jack Ester burst through the pack to grab an early lead in the late model feature and race on to an easier win. Toby Aaron, who figured in a spectacular flip July 2, here at the Speedway, again rolled Sunday, this time in the heat race.

The three racing Ansell brothers, took three checkered flags at Waukegan Sunday. Fran won the second heat in a borrowed car and Bill won the fast heat in his own racer. Homer, not to be left out, came from the rear of the semi-feature and passed brother Fran to win the event.

Jack Ester was the only double winner of the night in either division as he won the second heat and then ran away with the feature event. Odell Jones and later, Dennis Burgan, each spun while running second. Ken Becker took second money while Jim Cossman was third. Fastest qualifier, Dan Kalous was fourth and Mike Wolf crossed the line in fifth.

There will be a powder puff derby next Saturday night.

Merchants Lead Babe Ruth League

The Babe Ruth League Boosters beat the Bankers 8 to 4 Wednesday, July 13. The winning pitcher was Dale Dvorak, who gave up five hits and 11 walks and had three strikeouts. Losing pitcher was Dill, with Albano relieving him in the 4th inning. Kopriva of the Bankers and Slagle and Bentel of the Boosters each collected two hits.

The Merchants-Boosters game was called off because of a wet field and will be played Sunday, July 24 at 2 p.m.

The Advertiser-Merchant games scheduled for Friday was called off to allow for practice for the All-Star game. The Antioch All-Stars, were knocked out of the tournament Saturday, July 16, by the Barrington All-Stars. Barrington beat Antioch 8-3, with their pitcher allowing only 4 hits.

The Merchants lost their second game of the season when the Bankers, behind the pitching of Rick Nelson, beat them 11-9. Cermak was the losing pitcher. Each team had 5 hits.

Standings as of July 19:

Safety Measures For Summer In The Water

To make the summer in the surf safe and pleasurable—and to avert or reduce the toll of last summer's 6,000 drownings—the American Red Cross (ARC) and the American Medical Association (AMA) recommended the following safety rules:

"Learn to swim. The ability to swim, the ARC points out, helps you to overcome the fear and panic that grips nonswimmers in a water emergency. If you can swim a little, learn to swim better. The Red Cross booklet, "Teaching Johnny to Swim," is an easy-to-follow illustrated guide for parents teaching very young ones to swim. It is available from local Red Cross chapters—as is free swimming instruction.

"NEVER swim alone. A companion may save your life.

"Swim in a safe place. The presence of a lifeguard usually indicates an area is safe. "No trespassing" signs or signs warning of danger should be taken seriously.

"NEVER dive unless you know the water is deep enough and that there are no submerged objects such as rocks.

"NEVER depend upon a tube or inflated toy to support you in water where you cannot manage without them. They've been known to spring leaks, leaving swimmers helpless and in grave danger.

"If you haven't done much swimming, take it easy the first few times. Recognize your limitations.

"Don't swim when you're tired, overheated, or full from a recent meal.

Rescue Tips
"Don't try to effect a swimming rescue unless you know how. It's preferable to throw a line or ring buoy to the swimmer in trouble if he's not too far from shore. If the victim is in deep water, you can waste to chest depth and offer a reaching assist while bracing yourself by bending backward toward shore. Or better yet, shove a plank or lifesaving device to him until you can get help. If a rowboat or canoe is available, get alongside the victim so he can grasp the stern, or extend an oar drawing him to the stern. Then row back to safety. GET HELP FAST if you can't swim and you've done all you can to keep the victim afloat.

An astonishing number of Americans now have backyard pools. Of the 472 pool drownings last year, the AMA points out, 246 occurred at private homes—and 155 of the victims were under 5 years of age. The three chief causes of such drownings were lack of qualified adult supervision; inadequate pool protection, such as lack of fences and the victim's inability to swim or float.

Safer Home Pools
To make home pools safer, the U. S. Public Health Service suggests that you:

"Surround the pool with a fence or wall at least six feet high, with barriers atop it to prevent climbing. Extend it at least six inches into the ground to prevent burrowing

EXAMS ON PREPARING

A special examination will be given next September 28 and 29 for accountants and others who wish to represent taxpayers in matters before the Internal Revenue Service. Details of the examination and application forms will be available from District Offices of the IRS after June 1. An enrolment fee of $25 is required when the application is filed.

Tax practitioners who are not certified public accountants, attorneys or qualified former IRS employees, must establish their technical competence before they can represent their clients in tax matters before the Revenue Service. Technical and ethical standards for this right to practice are set by the Treasury Department.

Last year about 800 practitioners took the exam.

The enrollment program for practitioners is the responsibility of the Director, Audit Division, in the National Office of the Revenue Service.

Check off these points on your personal scorecard: age? weight? occupation? Do you get some exercise every day? just on occasional weekends? or just on your vacation? Take these factors into account in pacing yourself sensibly.

*Install an automatic alarm system to warn of trespassers.

*Keep at poolside life-saving devices such as a floatable "shepherd's crook," a lightweight pole with a large metal hood at one end. It enables a nonswimmer to pull a swimmer to safety.

*Make competent adult supervision a must. "Temporarily unattended children," says the AMA, contributes to more drownings than any other single cause. No one should swim alone. Even expert swimmers can suffer injury or fatigue.

With these sensible rules in mind, do go near the water!

Maybe that's why we're selling more Pontiacs than ever before in history.

Pontiac Catalina has the best resale value of any car in its class, and that includes the top lines of the low-priced three.

And we're making fantastic deals at the same time! So, whereas our Pontiacs are sensational buys anytime, right now they're beyond belief.

Home Town People Stage "South Pacific"

Ahoy Matey! Yes, Matey, I mean you! How would you like to join me in a "Behind the Porthole" rehearsal of P.M.E.'s new play "South Pacific"?

Pull up a deck chair, relax and together let's try to find out what makes live theatre, the life-line of show business, tick. At least feel its home-town pulse.

We could tell everyone that South Pacific will open at 8:30 p.m. this Saturday and Sunday and will run the following Friday, Saturday and Sunday, but these particulars you can read in the many advertisements and posters around town.

So... instead, through OUR porthole we see a theatre brimming over with enthusiastic, busy people putting together, like, small pieces of a jigsaw puzzle, a production for us to enjoy.

We see Ken Smouse on stage acting out his role as Emile DeBeque and tune our ears to the fine quality of his voice as he sings "Some Enchanted Evening." The next minute we hear his voice coming from the depths of the theatre directing the male chorus on how to imagine the stage as four sections to attain better staging effect. The endurance and versatility of Mr. Smouse as actor, singer and director will be displayed Saturday night when the pieces of the puzzle all fit together.

We have to admire the manner and stage presence of Sydney Morton, who portrays Ensign Nellie Forbush, when she steps into a shower stall, and despite the noise and commotion beyond the footlights, "Washes that man right out of her hair." Especially since the shower stall was nothing but a few pieces of small boards nailed together. We understand this gal holds down a full-time job besides raising her three children and comes down from Kenosha for rehearsals. I wonder how she manages to fill all her free time?

Did someone get hurt and call for a nurse? Oh no! That's just one of the cast trying on her costume. My, is HE going to be one of the nurses too? OOPS! Maybe we do need a nurse. One of the little Abderholdens just fell over a ladder in the aisle. Anyway that's better than the little Smouse boy toppling off the top of that ladder propped against the wall.

Now they are starting to rehearse again. This should be scene 4. No, the last scene was scene 4? This will

AVERAGE GROWER FEATURED

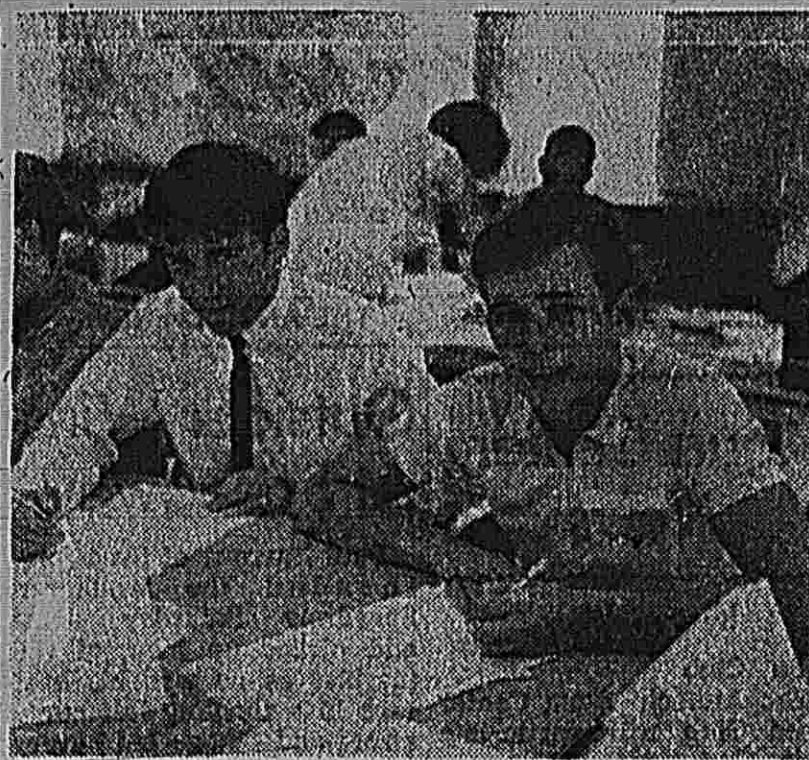

Floriculture at the 1966 Illinois State Fair will include classes for more commonly known flowers, according to the department superintendent, Mrs. Sue Doolin of Ashland.

Mrs. Doolin has arranged this year's program with the average flower grower in mind and hopes to attract a more varied group of exhibitors than in previous years. An example is the new class, "Across Our Fruited Plain," designed to depict the bounty of the state, and open to any material grown in field or garden.

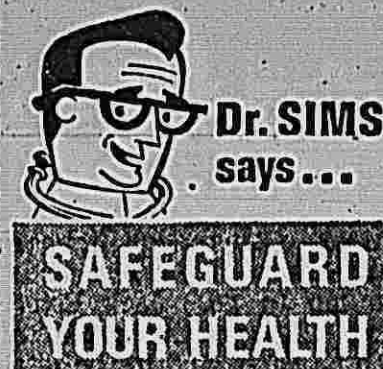

Flower shows will be held each day of the fair, Aug. 12 through Aug. 21, on the main floor of the Illinois building.

LISTEN AND LEARN

"The politicians are now campaigning for election. They will ultimately represent you. Why don't you get out and attend the meetings and luncheons where they are speaking and evaluate what they say in your own mind, weighing it with what you know to be true, before you decide which one to vote for."—Crystal Lake News and McHenry County Guide.

Ed Jaronik of Waukegan on the right will major in business, but he said he came to WIU mainly because of the outstanding golf teams, coached by Harry Mussatto, Del Church of Antioch (with the tie) has other interests — drama. While he will major in business, he may minor in dramatics. In high school he had a role in The Mouse That Roared.

DON'T IGNORE SINUS INFECTION

Millions of people suffer sinusitis.

If you're among them, you're probably confused as to just what this condition is, and what can be done about it.

Sinusitis is an infection of the mucous membranes of one or more of your eight nasal sinuses. These sinuses—which add resonance to the voice—are cavities or air spaces located in the cheekbones, forehead and on either side of and behind the nose.

While upper respiratory illnesses, such as colds, are the most common causes of acute sinus infection, it also can be triggered by an emotional upset.

Chronic sinusitis, on the other hand, usually stems from allergies like hay fever.

Other less frequent causes include—obstructions to a sinus opening or poor health habits, such as lack of sleep or excessive smoking.

Whether the infection is acute or chronic, its symptoms are much like the common cold—sneezing, draining of nasal secretions, head pain and soreness in the affected area. Fever and swelling around the eyes may also occur.

While surgery is sometimes necessary to correct the situation, most sinusitis sufferers can get relief from their physician.

Whatever you do, don't ignore a sinus infection, for it could lead to serious complications if not treated properly. And don't become a target for over-the-counter sprays, inhalators and other "cure-alls." Taken without medical supervision, these products could easily irritate a sinus condition and even cause additional problems.

Spring is a good time to break the vicious cycle of automated work and passive recreation. But whatever the season, start with a short easy workout. Pace yourself gradually and stick to one basic rule: blow the whistle when you've had enough.

LIVER—THE EASY WAY

It's easy to get liver into the diet by using liver sausage or Braunschweiger, the smoked variety of this meat. Spread on toasted bread or buns, top with 1/4-inch thick slices of tomato and equal amounts of mayonnaise and Parmesan cheese. Bake in a very hot oven (450° F.) 6 to 8 minutes or until cheese mixture is hot and bubbly.

be scene 2? Oh well, the puzzle pieces can't always fit together just right.

Ah!! A love scene between the beautiful native girl, Liat, played by Nancy Sevfath and Lt. Joseph Cable, played by Lloyd Pedersen. Just as we are enthralled with Liat's languid movements, our ears pick up a child's voice behind us saying, "Mommy, does he know that's my Aunt Nancy?" Now if that doesn't tend to break you up!! The mommy is Producer of the show, Garnet Oddsen and the indignant niece is her daughter, Cathy.

"They are coming to take her away, Ho, Ha, Ha, He, He." Who? Laughing Bloody Mary, played by Charlotte Worswick. When? Please, AFTER the show, we wouldn't want anyone to miss her wistful rendition of "Bali Hai."

We can't leave our porthole without mentioning Dr. Al Bucar whose mere presence on stage tends to perk up the audience. Even the cast catches a certain magnetism from him. He portrays Luther Billis in South Pacific and no one, not even the cast, knows how many of his rehearsal shenanigans he'll carry over to opening night.

Child Abuse Law Turns Up Over 400 Cases

Nearly 500 cases of suspected child abuse—about 2½ times the original estimate—may be recorded during the first year of the Illinois child abuse law.

This somber prediction was made by Cyril H. Winking, director of the Department of Children and Family Services, who revealed that 443 cases have been reported during the first eleven months.

"These reports, which most often reflect tragic events related to unstable families, are a real cause for concern," Winking said.

"The only encouragement we can derive from the volume of reports is that the Illinois law is doing a good job of bringing these cases to our attention. Our agency is geared to provide child protection and other social services designed to stabilize the families," he said.

"But one can't help thinking what may have been happening and going unnoticed before the law was passed," he added.

Beatings, fractures, malnutrition and burns continue to head the list of types of abuse reported, but each case has its own unique elements.

Winking said evidence in isolated cases indicates that a child may be abused because the male partner in a marriage doubts that he is the father of the child.

There have been 46 deaths of children reported under the law, which requires physicians, other practitioners and hospitals to report cases of serious abuse or neglect to the Department within 24 hours of the examination of the child.

The law suspends the privileged relationship between physician and patient in such cases and protects the doctor or other individual against suit for damages.

Winking said the rather alarming volume of reports has caused the Department to expand its efforts to make sure that all doctors and hospitals in the state are aware of their responsibilities. He said social workers in each of the Department's eight regions are making a hospital canvass to make sure that medical personnel, especially those who work in emergency rooms, realize what steps must be taken as soon as a decision is made that sufficient grounds exist for suspecting child abuse.

RULES FOR SAFE PASSING

About 10,000 traffic accidents were caused last year by improper passing on Illinois streets and highways. The defensive driver will not pass another vehicle when it is not safe to do so. Before you pass make sure that you have plenty of road space to complete the passing maneuver without an accident.

Before starting your passing maneuver make sure the road ahead is clear of oncoming traffic before you start around the car in front of you. A defensive driver will also check the road behind to avoid the car trying to pass his.

"The average time it takes to pass another vehicle at 60 miles per hour is 10 seconds! At that speed you will need nearly one-half mile of clear road space to pass safely. The best rule to follow is—if you are in doubt don't pass." — The Advertiser-Advance, El Paso.

EDUCATION A NECESSITY

It is important to ask the question "What's an education good for anyway?" The answer to that question is simple. Jobs demand it. Employers insist on it. So you'd better plan on having what it really takes to get the kind of job you want. You need a good education to get and hold a good job.

The smaller your education, the smaller the job you'll get. The smaller the salary, too. It is a fact, you really cut off your future when you cut out of school. Any school. At any level. If you are in school now... stay there! Learn all you can for as long as you can. If you're out of school, there are plenty of ways to get valuable training outside the classroom.

Remember, students, a good education isn't a luxury today. It's an absolute necessity.

AT FAIR

Aquarama, the Theatre of the Sea, will be one of the more unusual presentations at the 1966 Illinois State Fair. Trained porpoises, rare tropical fish, an electric eel, lectures and films will make up Aquarama's one-the-hour show at the Independent Midway near the Iron Mine on Main Street.

Aquarama will arrive at the State Fairgrounds by plane. About five extra porpoises will be brought to the fairgrounds because of the animals' delicacy. Porpoises are subject to many human diseases, exhibit balky mannerisms and tire easily when overworked.

Cruise this vacation in Impala comfort with foam-cushion seats, a trunk like a small trailer and your caliber 6 or V8 whisking you along. This year's Chevrolets are the most—and right now so are the savings.

Chevrolet Impala Sport Coupe—with door-to-door carpeting and all the other Body by Fisher comforts you richly deserve.

This is the time of year you feel like holding up a do-not-disturb sign to the world—and relaxing. And relax you will the moment the door of one of these new Chevrolets closes behind you. The ride—with a hefty Full Coil spring at each wheel—isolates you from bumps and such annoyances. The power—seven engines available all the way to a 425-hp Turbo-Jet V8—is the kind that's made for getting away from it all. And to help you see exactly where you're getting, you've got 2-speed windshield wipers with washer among eight standard safety aids. So get off to the right kind of start this vacation—and get down to your Chevrolet dealer's.

Gas heats
water fast

Maybe you heard it again today: "Hey, who used up all the hot-water?" Or was it you who said it? Just as you were almost finished showering, and the water turned cold.

With a modern gas water heater, using up all the hot water is practically impossible.

That's because gas makes the big difference—goes to work fast. Keeps a full supply always ready, automatically. Being in hot water this way is a pleasure you'll welcome every time you turn the tap.

Why settle for less? Have your plumber-dealer or Northern Illinois Gas Company install a modern, fast gas water heater in your home. Call today.

Forget that gas is cheaper... remember that gas is modern

VEAL ROLLS FEATURE EGG, BACON FILLING

Light accents for warm weather menus are provided by delicately flavored meats like veal.

Cutlets made from the round (leg) of veal can be pounded and rolled to hold a filling, explains Reba Staggs, noted meat expert. "She suggests chopped hard-cooked egg, mushrooms and uncooked bacon, also chopped. This would provide a savory-flavored fat which is needed since veal has almost no fat of its own.

To develop flavor, slow baking or simmering with moisture contributed by canned tomatoes is necessary for this recipe. Tomato liquid thickened with flour provides well-flavored gravy for the entree.

Veal Rolls De Luxe

2 veal round steaks, cut 1/2-inch thick
1 slice bacon, uncooked
1 hard-cooked egg, chopped
1 teaspoon finely chopped onion
1 can (2 oz.) mushroom pieces if desired
2 tablespoons lard or bacon drippings
Salt and pepper
1 1/2 cups canned tomatoes
Flour for gravy

Cut bacon into small squares and combine with chopped egg, onion and 2 tablespoons mushrooms. Cut veal into 6 pieces approximately 3 x 4 1/2 inches each. Remove bone. Pound veal pieces and spread with bacon and egg mixture. Roll and fasten with a wooden pick. Brown rolls in lard or drippings. Season. Add tomatoes and remaining mushrooms. Cover and cook in a slow oven (325° F.) or simmer on top of the range, 45 minutes to 1 hour or until tender. Remove rolls, thicken tomato liquid for gravy. 3 to 4 servings.

No matter how bad the movie at a drive-in theater is, most patrons manage to love every minute of it.

REALLY A BARGAIN

Quoted from the Onarga Leader-Review:

"Rising prices bedevil great numbers of American families. Inflation has cut deeply into the dollar's purchasing power and continues to cut. Yet, there are essentials that all of us buy which can be regarded as bargains today. And one of them is food.

"A publication of an eastern food chain system tells the story. In 1912 the average family had an income of $11 a week and spent 40% of it for food. Today that average income exceeds $125 and only $25 of it goes for food—and it is more and better food.

"Comparisons with other countries are revealing, too.

The American worker's food bill runs to about 19% of his earnings. In England the figure is 29%; in France 31%; in Italy 45%—and in Russia a staggering 53%!

"The productive power and efficiency of the American farmer must be given much of the credit for this. But other factors play a major role as well. That is the case with American retailing. Working on the mass distribution principle, typical retailers operate at a profit that is almost unbelievably low. The chain store publication points out that the average family spends $1,170 a year for its food—and the average retail profit on that sum is just $15. Yes—food is really a bargain."
